CALENDAR 12

We find an odd little story in 2 Samuel 6:1-15. This story will give us a peek into what Karl Barth called “the strange new world of the Bible.” If you haven’t entered it, I invite you into this odd and puzzling world. It demands a close and careful reading. If you can’t manage to plunge through the Bible word by word, just leaf through it stopping here and there and reading whatever is at hand. It will not be long before you find something intriguing, totally incomprehensible, mind boggling, crazy, or otherwise outside the pale of normal human experience. The Bible, read properly, often reverses everything you think you believe. And as Augustine, another great Christian mind reminds us, if you every peer even a little bit into the depths of Scripture, you will never be bored again.

As an example of this, turn to the second book of Samuel. In chapter 6 verses 1-15 we find a story concerning the Ark of God. The Ark was a rectangular box built to God’s specifications several hundred years earlier. It was a portable shrine that was the base of the throne of God. In other words, where the Ark was God was. Israel’s enemies captured the Ark. They suffered greatly as long as they kept it. They finally gave it back. King David decided to move the Ark into the capital city Jerusalem. He had a new wagon built to transport it. During the journey the oxen pulling the cart stumbled, the Ark began to fall, and a man named Uzzah placed his hand upon the Ark to keep it from falling. Now read from the text what happened:

And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him down there because of his error, and he died there beside the Ark of God... and David was afraid of the Lord that day. 2 Samuel 6:8-9

Uzzah is dead. God “struck him down.” David is afraid. Question: Does this sound like the God you know? Could this be the God who died on the cross for you? How does this square with “God is love?”

When you run across something like this deep thinking will be required. Remember the Bible is both God’s revelation and a very human book. To read it fully we must keep both in mind. And remember too, the Bible shows clear signs of artful editing. There are at least four major lines of thought intricately intertwined within the pages of Scripture so that we have to read between the lines so to speak. The truth is there as God intended; we simply have to puzzle it out. Also keep in mind that God is revealed to us in Jesus Christ. Jesus never struck someone dead for a helpful act.

By doing a little biblical spadework, digging around in the Bible itself, we can discover that when the Ark was built it came with very specific instructions. These instructions determined its exact measurements and how it was to be handled. It was never to be touched. It was built with rings along its borders so poles slipped through these rings could carry it.

When David decided to move the Ark he had a new wagon built, the Ark loaded upon the wagon, and the wagon pulled by oxen. When the oxen, who never should have been pulling the wagon upon which the Ark never should have been loaded stumbled, the Ark tilted and was falling or in danger of tumbling off the wagon. Uzzah, helpfully, tries to avert catastrophe. Here is where I wish the text were more helpful. Maybe the stress of the situation brought on a full-blown heart attack; maybe the Ark and wagon fell on him and crushed him. Anyway, David has a problem. Uzzah is dead and because David has not followed the specific instructions for carrying the Ark. David is at fault. David is afraid.

God tells us something very important here. In this story Uzzah, and God, become the scapegoat. This is how we humans act. Think about it. Who do we blame for our problems? Did you ever hear, or say, “Why did God...?” or, “Not my fault...” when clearly it is?

good time to come back to Church!

After sharing with you the difficult news of our immediate departure from Jordan we left many of you worried and concerned. We want to first, apologize for our lack of communication during the past months. You all have been our close friends and prayer partners and there is no excuse.

The past few months have been difficult for us. It has been a journey of deep grief and sadness paralleled with joy and confirmation of walking together with the Lord. Upon returning to the states we met with our organization TEAM to discuss logistics and meet with the counseling department. The counseling program was a needed time to debrief from Jordan and reunite /understand each other as a couple...we returned to Williamsport PA near Robin's family where we were able to finally settle and begin to start a home together again with better tools and confidence. Will we return to Jordan? Answer: Not in the foreseen future, but we don't know. Will we enter back into Arab ministry? Answer: We hope, but again we do not know. What we do know is we are so thankful for the Lord and how He has walked with us through this time, and we will continue to walk with Him one step at a time.

Prayer Requests: For continue healing from the grief of having to leave Jordan. For our marriage that it will continue to strengthen as we journey together through this new stage of life. That we will continue to build on the firm foundation of our faith in Christ, trusting and believing in Him for our every need For Aaron- That he would be about to find a job locally that would plug him into the community and that would excite him. For continue healing of his heart. For the finding of a local soccer/basketball league where he could play and make friends. For Robin- That she would have the ability to support and encourage Aaron as he continues to look for jobs. For continued healing of her heart. For discernment as she makes decisions about potential jobs for herself. For friends in the local community. For us to find a local home church

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

Pine Springs Campers Learn About Mission Out of Chaos, Hope

Throughout the 2015 camping season, Redstone Presbytery will provide campers at Pine Springs the opportunity to learn about the work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA) and the various ways in which PDA reaches out with the love and compassion of Jesus Christ.

The cabin will feature a map of the United States marked with the places where PDA has responded to natural disasters like Superstorm Sandy, as well as human-caused disasters, like the knife attack at Franklin Regional High School, here in Redstone Presbytery.

As part of the experience campers, as well as other visitors, will be invited to play the Uprooted Game. Each day thousands of people become uprooted from their homes because of disaster. The Uprooted Game is designed to help people imagine some of the realities faced by those forced from their homes.

When you are at Pine Springs this summer, please stop by the Mission Cabin.
