Praise

Early in May, Poke Run was honored to provide a joyful worship service featuring "Remedy." Remedy is the resident praise band at Loch Raven Presbyterian Church in Parkville, MD. Their primary goal is "...to make the Gospel Message accessible through the use of song and praise. We believe that music is a form of worship and we strive, humbly, to use the talents we have been given to glorify God and bless those attending our services." Remedy provides quarterly evening worship services at Loch Raven as well as serving local congregations during Sunday worship services. Remedy included:

Sue Milligan, Vocals

Josh Stenger, Lead Guitar

Rachel Stenger, Vocals

Melissa Goetschius, Drums

Stephanie Case, Piano & Vocals

Kirsten Wallace, Sound

And now—FROM Sean O'Neil, Poke Run music Director: "Pete and I have discussed how great the idea would be to have a home grown praise band of our own. The point of the praise band is to bring people together who love to listen and perform music in the name of the Lord. If you have any interest in starting something like this please email or call me. Please keep in mind, praise style of music is much different from our choir anthems; however, the same goal is achieved, to praise the Lord through music. We would welcome any talent whether it be guitar, piano, vocals, percussion/rhythm. We would love to create something like this. "

So consider if you might like to be involved in this and if you are, talk to Pastor Pete or Sean!

In May, Poke Run Presbyterian Church recognized those who share their musical talents. The Congregational Life committee prepared a breakfast in their honor that was shared by many.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN NEWS

Women of the Church/Circle 2 will meet again in the Fall.

The REDSTONE MISSION TEA—is scheduled for Saturday, July 21st, 1pm
$20 donation—held at Congruity Presbyterian Church

Stories of Redstone

Christ at work in our midst

In 1990, James Calvin Davis began the Preparation for Ministry process as a member of the Colver Presbyterian Church. Under the "care" of Redstone, he completed his studies at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond (M.Div.) and at University of Virginia (Ph.D). Ordained by this Presbytery (1997), he became pastor at a Presbyterian Church in Virginia. In 2001, called to be a professor at Middlebury College, he was received into Albany Presbytery.

Recently, Dr. Davis was elected by the GA to serve on the Presbytery Cooperative Committee for Examination of Candidates. The "PCC" prepares the standard ordination exams for the PC(USA) that assess the readiness of future pastoral leadership. There, he reconnected with another "Redstone person." Rev. Marnie Silbert of Newlonsburg who serves the PCC as chair of the Polity task force and just so happens, was the chair of our CPM during James' years of preparation. Thus, bringing the connection "full circle." In addition to this service, Redstone Presbytery annually elects ordination exam readers. This year, Rev Vickery, Elder Lynn Mance (Delmont), Rev Foust, and Ray Edelman (Irwin) served the Presbytery, the PCUSA and our future leadership.

An educated clergy has been a hallmark of Presbyterianism. Yet, God's call is often surprising leading people at different times in their lives to undergo this preparation to serve. Someone reading this may be feeling God's stirring in them to inquire if Ministry of Word and Sacrament is God's call on their life. If so, contact your pastor or contact the Presbytery. You never know where it might lead.

HELP NEEDED:

With the good weather comes the growing green of "weeds." If you have any spare time, feel free to ATTACK a flower bed around the church. And watch for opportunities to join others – Thank you in advance for all your help. The work of "phantom" planters and weeders has not gone unnoticed and is appreciated!

From the Poke Run Trustees: The Trustees are busy as always— To the right are the new cemetery rates. Remember to report facility problems and needs to the office and or the Trustees. Thank you as always for your help and support - so many contribute in so many ways.
