October is Pastor Appreciation Month

Since we have been talking about the church on Sunday mornings I thought I would continue reflecting on the church in this article. To do this I will return to the early creeds of the church and extract from them a basic tenant of our belief. Karl Barth calls this particular belief credo, or "I believe ..." or "I believe in one church." One church, is there only one? Drive through any small town and you will see two or four or eight or a dozen or more different church buildings. Examine them further and you will see that they are not only different on the outside, larger and small and more and less decorated, but they are even more different on the inside. Spend a little time with each group calling themselves the church and you will discover even more differences. At the risk of overusing the word, you will see that they believe different things about different things and that they even believe different things about the same things. We have the Lord's Supper, Communion, Eucharist, and sometimes only blessed bread, or in a few cases no celebration of the last meal of Christ and his disciples at all. We dip, dunk, submerge, sprinkle and so on for baptism. We expect different results from each of these namings. How is a person to figure out what goes on in "the one church?"

More to the point it is clear that we have a divided church. Since it is also God's clear intention that there be only one church, after all, there is one Christ and one Scripture which is actually quite plain on a number of points, if we will read it simply and well. That itself leads to problems of interpretation for we are all limited and sinful people.

We are divided and that means that we present a fragmented witness to the world, a witness that we can hardly expect them to believe. We cannot expect people to believe in the many contradictions that the fragmented church presents. So what is the divided church to do? One possibility is to insist that everyone believe as we do. Some churches take this view. There is their system of belief and everyone else is heretical and in great danger of spending eternity as a burning coal. The problem with a view like this one is that it ignores the sinfulness and error that comes from every human invention, and every church to one degree or another, two thousand years after the fact of the resurrection is a mixture of truth and error, of human invention.

Shall we give in to everyone, just to make them happy? Some assemblies calling themselves church take just this position. Their stance is so soft that anyone can believe almost anything. They tend to lean towards theological debating parties with no boundaries, nice people with no rules. Rules are mean and restrictive and judgmental. For them there are no Christian distinctives; we are all just one happy family, except of course those fundamentalists over there who would have us believe as they do. The problem here is that truth is sacrificed for unity and we are not forming the church of Jesus Christ. "What is demanded is the unity of the Church of Jesus Christ, not the externally satisfying co-existence and co-operation of different religious societies." (Barth)

We're not quite done here. Some people withdraw from the religious body calling itself the church. They believe in their own private interpretation. This is never the answer. What is?

Suppose that we begin to discover our central nature in Christ each in our own unique expression. Admittedly we are imperfect. Admittedly we have made and will make mistakes and take wrong turns and go down dead end rabbit trails. Yet, It seems quite real to me to think that God has given each of us our own unique vision of Christ that is true as only God can give Truth. However we can search our history and find the great truths revealed and developed there. Calvin got many things correct, as did Barth and many others of the great Christian thinkers of our past. We can learn and pray together. We can begin to piece our truths together like a great patchwork quilt, like the ones our grandmothers made. Together we can begin to see the pattern laid out before us in Scripture. Together we can begin to at least approach the one church. There will be no sacrifice of truth. Rather we will discover Christ among us perhaps in new ways and I suspect, surprising ways. The way to one church is to be the local church God calls us to be, to find where Christ is, and share our life with others.

Reformation Sunday

Presbyterians celebrate the tradition that grounds their faith on Reformation Sunday. It is always the last Sunday in October, marking the occasion in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 theses on the church door in Wittenberg, Germany.

This year, Reformation Sunday will be marked on October 28th.

All Saints' Day in the Reformed tradition, is a time to give thanks for the lives of the whole people of God. Rather than putting saints on pedestals as holy people set apart in glory, we give glory to God for the ordinary, holy lives of the believers in this and every age. This is an appropriate time to give thanks to members of the community of faith who have died in the past year. We also pray that we may be counted among the company of the faithful in God's eternal realm.

Poke Run members who have passed since the last commemoration, will be remembered on Sunday, November 4th .

"Trunk or Treat" at Poke Run Church
Saturday, October 27th 10:30am—noon
(Rainday, Monday October 29th 6:30-8pm)

What is "Trunk or Treat"?

"Trunk-or-Treat" is a safe Halloween alternative, where trick-or-treating is done from decorated parked car to parked car in one location.

So, we're planning:

"Trunk-or-Treating" at Poke Run Church
Refreshments and Craft— in Fellowship Hall

How can you be involved?

Bring a Decorated Car! We'd love to have at least 10 cars—Register "your car" using the attached form (drop it in the offering plate or put it in the office—you can also call Amy in the office to register 724-327-5563.) Decorate your car, dress up, pass out candy—it's that simple. See some photos on the next page for ideas—or Google it on the internet. Set up at 10am. There will be a prize for best decorated.!

Bring some candy! We're not sure how many children will come, but we're hoping it's a great success. If you would care to donate candy to pass out—drop it off in the church office or bring it that day. (NO HOMEMADE TREATS—unfortunately we will not be able to distribute homemade treats because of health restrictions.)

Volunteer in Fellowship Hall—coffee, cider/juice, cookies—is this you? Maybe you would like to help set this up? maybe you would like to run a craft table? Maybe you can bring a couple dozen cookies?

Fall Themed Photo spot—we won't be "taking" the pictures, but we'd like to set up a place where folks can take a nice picture of their "Trick-or-Treaters." Maybe working on this is YOU?

Traffic Control—Do you have access to traffic cones? Would you be available to help direct traffic, parking and whomever God brings to Poke Run for the day?

INVITE!!!! Most importantly invite your family, friends and neighbors. God is calling us to witness "... in this time and place!" Let people see the Poke Run Community! All children MUST be accompanied by an adult.

Have Questions or More Ideas? - Call Amy in the Church Office—724-327--5563

Call the office and let Amy know how you want to help!

- |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> I plan to have a car!  | <input type="checkbox"/> I can direct traffic         | <input type="checkbox"/> I can help make a photo spot |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I can donate candy   | <input type="checkbox"/> I have traffic cones         | <input type="checkbox"/> I can set up Fellowship Hall |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I can donate cookies   | <input type="checkbox"/> This is what I can do: _____ |   |

| <input type="checkbox"/> I can help in Fellowship Hall  | _____   |   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I will pray for the day! I will pray for all who find their way to Poke Run! |   |   |

Do it with a friend! Make it as simple as you want. The point is to host a safe and fun "Trunk or Treat" for our community. They will see a congregation that enjoys Christian community and has fun too!
